D1: to learn a script extract from the short play 'The night before' for Baseline assessment

Your task is to choose a character to take on from the script. After working together in groups in class, learn your lines for an assessed performance.

Use the script provided by your teacher to learn your lines.

D2: to record personal information and present it to the class

Your task is to introduce yourself to your new classmates. At home, think carefully about the personal information you are going to share with your new friends:

- Your name
- Family
- Hobbies/interests

Use the worksheet provided by your teacher to record your work.

D3: to bring in a prop for your character

In class, you will have focused on a particular character, your task is to find a prop for this character and bring it to your next lesson.

To help you to select an appropriate prop to use, think about the following areas:

- The appearance of your character
- The way (s)he acts
- His/her interests

Extension activity:

Once you have chosen your prop, write a short paragraph describing the prop and why you think it is an appropriate choice for your character.

D4: to rehearse a friendship scene

With the other members of your group, rehearse the 'friendship' scene you practised in class. Remember to take time learning your role, as this will be your assessment task for this term!

D5: to design and create an anti bullying poster

Design a poster for an anti-bullying campaign. To help you to design your poster, think about making PALS with the text; the same technique you use in English lessons:

P (purpose): Why are you making the poster?

A (audience): Who is it aimed at?

L (language): What language features will you include

S (structure): How will you put it together and how will you set it out?

D6: to research the history of pantomime

Your task is to research the history of pantomime. You can use a range of resources to help you with this task:

- Worksheets provided by your teacher
- Internet
- Library books

Pay a visit to the college library where Mrs Scott, the librarian, will only be to happy to help you.

D7: to design and create a poster to advertise group pantomimes

Your task is to design and create a poster to advertise the pantomime your group has been rehearsing. Remember to make PALS with your text!
